THE DESERT SONG

Governor Birabeau has been sent to Morocco with a difficult task, to bring to justice the riff bandits that are terrorising the local community especially their leader the elusive Red Shadow. Pierre his son is besotted by another man's fiancee Margot (who secretly dreams of being swept into the arms of a bold dashing sheik) and is of no practical help at all in his plan to catch the bandits.

Will Birabeau get his man? Does Margot get carried away into the Arabian night? Is Pierre as weak and ineffectual as he first appears? What is the secret that Azuri, the seductive dancing girl knows?

All these questions and more will be answered in our production of the hot-blooded, fast moving musical—
